

Samuel Wolf

(206) 484-1892 · swolf@mit.edu · samueltwolf.com

EDUCATION	Massachusetts Institute of Technology , Cambridge, MA Ph.D. in Economics, 2025–present Interests: political economy, labor economics, public finance Williams College , Williamstown, MA B.A. in Economics, 2021 B.A. in Statistics, 2021 B.A. in Political Science (with highest honors), 2021 Magna Cum Laude
PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE	Pre-Doctoral Research Fellow for Professor Amy Finkelstein Policy Associate (Education Sector), J-PAL Communications, Policy, and Research Associate to the Global Executive Director, J-PAL	2023–2025 2022–2023 2021–2022
WORK IN PROGRESS	“Person or Party: Disentangling Incumbency Effects in American Gubernatorial Elections” (2026)
HONORS AND AWARDS	MIT Graduate Fellowship NSF Graduate Research Fellowship Program, Honorable Mention Sam Goldberg Colloquium Prize in Mathematics for Statistics Richard Lathers Essay Prize in Government Senior honors thesis, Political Science: “From Degenerates to Connoisseurs: Homosexuality and Masculinity in the American Alt-Right.” Awarded highest honors. Phi Beta Kappa (elected junior year) National Merit Scholar	2025–2027 2025 2021 2021 2021 2020 2017
TEACHING	Teaching Assistant, Intermediate Macroeconomics (Williams College)	2020, 2019
PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES AND MENTORSHIP	Treasurer, MIT Graduate Economics Association Mentor, Economics Mentoring Program Forecaster, Social Science Prediction Platform	2026–2027 2025–present 2025–present
TECHNICAL SKILLS	Programming: Stata, R, Python, MATLAB Typesetting: L ^A T _E X, LyX Languages: English (native), Spanish (conversational)	